Polymer Clay Master Class: Exploring Process, Technique, and Collaboration with 11 Master Artists

I traveled to Jackson, Wyoming for the first time at the young age of 18 for a winter break ski trip. The seated man, who was smoking a very dirty and short clay pipe, was as broad-shouldered, as sturdy, and as well-knit; but while the one, in spite of a somewhat heavy build, was, so to speak, polished by exercise into grace; the other was rough and angular, and smirched as his countenance was by sweat and the grime of some manufacturing trade, he looked as brutal as his words.
